BUILDING THE BRIDGE!

5th Year Anniversary

Hotspots Happening Out celebrates Black culture with an annual Black History Month Field Day Fundraiser every February. All proceeds go to a worthy organization that provide services in the advancement of Black and Brown LGBTQ+ people.

Working with local businesses and the City of Wilton Manors, The Cookout is one of Hotspots Happening Out continuing efforts to showcase that the City of Wilton Manors is welcoming to all races and ethnicities, and is committed to building upon the race relations within the diverse Island City.

The Cookout invites local businesses within Wilton Manors and the surrounding area as well as city officials and neighboring friends and family to come together and enjoy cultural food, refreshments, activities, and music.

Now in its Fifth year, The Cookout continues its honored tradition in the Island City with a public proclamation reading bestowed upon a deserving person and business in honor of Black History Month.
